Saturday 1st February

The Abruti Quartet

In a delightful start to the series, local players (familiar faces to many at St Peter's!) will present two of Haydn's string quartets, Op. 33 No. 1 in B minor and Op. 77 No. 1 in G major.

Saturday 8th February

St Barnabas Cathedral Youth Choir

Making their St Peter's debut, young singers from Nottingham's Roman Catholic Cathedral will present a wide-ranging and entertaining programme.

Saturday 15th February

Katharine Dryden, mezzo-soprano

Philip Robinson, piano

In a welcome return to St Peter's, this varied programme will include song repertoire by Schumann, Schubert, Brahms, Vaughan Williams and Elgar.

Saturday 22nd February

Richard Hinsley, piano

Local contemporary-classical pianist Richard Hinsley will perform pieces from his two albums along with a selection of new, unreleased material.

Saturday 29th February

'Illuminate'

A welcome return to St Peter's by this innovative project (established by composer Dr Angela Slater) that promotes the work of emerging women composers and performers alongside historical repertoire.

Saturday 7th March

Liszt: Via Crucis

A rare opportunity to hear Liszt's powerful musical evocation of the fourteen Stations of the Cross. The excellent Nottingham Baroque Soloists are joined at the piano by former St Peter's Director of Music, Philip Collin.
